

Résumé

Dot Simmons, Director of First Impressions - Starke

Dot Simmons is the Director of First Impressions in DDF's Starke office. She knows the majority of DDF's clients by name and her warm personality makes her the perfect point of contact for clients.

Since joining DDF in 1998, Dot has helped streamline DDF's tax return processing procedures. Dot handles all of the accounts receivable for the firm and sets up new accounts. Dot is one of the members of DDF's Fun Committee and usually the spokesperson for the committee. The committee is responsible for planning and organizing team fun events and activities. Her fun-loving personality and creative ideas contribute to firm-wide events that all of the team members enjoy.
