Gala Messerschmidt is a paraprofessional in the firm of Douglas, Douglas & Farnsworth.

Gala joined DDF in 2001. Since her arrival, she has helped business clients with their monthly bookkeeping, weekly payroll, payroll tax deposits and both their quarterly and yearly tax returns. During tax season, she also prepares numerous individual income tax returns. Gala is also one of the members of DDF's Fun Committee. The committee is responsible for planning and organizing team fun events and activities.

Gala graduated from Iowa Western as outstanding Business Student of the year in 1992 with an Associates in Art, majoring in accounting. She continued her education at Buena Vista University in Iowa and annually takes continuing education classes. She is certified to assist in State of Florida Sales Tax audits.

Gala attends continuing professional education classes each year in the field of taxation.
