David Mason is a shareholder in the firm and manages our tax department. David prepares valuations on businesses, for estate, gift and buy/sell transactions.

In December of 2001, David became a shareholder in our firm and continues to split his time between taxation and value added services. He is the past president of the Middleburg Council of the Clay County Chamber of Commerce and past board member of the Chamber's Business Development Advisory Council.

In 1999, David became a Certified Valuation Analyst (CVA) under the rules of National Association of Certified Valuation Analyst and has, as such, valued businesses under a variety of circumstances. David is also Certified in Florida Sales Tax (CFST) under the Florida Department of Revenues Certified Audit Program. This program allows him to audit, on behalf of the Department of Revenue, businesses and governmental units to assure compliance with Florida Sales and Use Tax statutes.

David is a 1979 graduate of Christopher Newport College in Newport News, Virginia and is a licensed Certified Public Accountant in both Virginia and Florida. Prior to joining our firm in 1996, David practiced public accounting in Virginia as a member of regional firms and as a shareholder of his own firm.
